Welcome to the 2011 Welsh Proms

During the summer months Cardiff takes on a carnival atmosphere with events taking place in and around Wales's capital as part of Cardiff Festival. Of all those events the Welsh Proms Cardiff are both the longest established and the jewel in the crown. For over a week every corner of St David's Hall, the National Concert Hall of Wales throngs to a variety of different music, ranging from some of the city's youngest and most talented musicians to international quality symphony concerts, creating an irresistible party buzz.

Last year we celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Welsh Proms Cardiff with a terrific range of music-making and this year once again Cardiff Council brings you something of the same excitement and variety. You can catch concerts in the mornings for the youngest members of the family, take in lunchtime music-making by up-and-coming talent or while away the later afternoon with occasional concerts by top quality local talent.

At the centre of the Welsh Proms Cardiff are the evening orchestral concerts, masterminded and in some cases conducted by the man whose vision brought the Welsh Proms to fruition at their first year in 1986 – Owain Arwel Hughes CBE.

This year we welcome a dazzling range of soloists including internationally acclaimed pianist Noriko Ogawa who is delighted to be performing Rhapsody in Blue with the Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra as part of our American Prom and soprano Elin Manahan Thomas as part of the Last Night celebrations.

The Welsh Proms Cardiff is your festival. If you love music then we hope that you will find something in this brochure to enjoy. It might be a Tiddly Prom giving you the opportunity to introduce a young child to the magic of music, it might be something new that you've never heard before or a piece that you've loved all your life played by a world class orchestra in the superb acoustics of our National Concert Hall. Whatever the music is though, I do hope you'll find something to delight you in this year's Welsh Proms Cardiff and join us in this superb feast of music.

Coope, Boyes and Simpson's powerfully distinctive unaccompanied singing and song writing have taken English roots into radical new directions described as "quite simply, the best purveyors of Acappella song on these islands". Their songs, mostly written by Jim Boyes and Lester Simpson, deal with social and environmental issues using harmonies in the folk-country tradition but with a twist that mirrors the sharply barbed lyrics.

"As passionate a tour de force of an unaccompanied singing as you can imagine." – Mojo

Mae canu digyfeiliant grymus o arbennig Coope, Boyes a Simpson a'u caneuon gwreiddiol wedi mynd â chanu'r gwreiddiau yn Lloegr i gyfeiriadau newydd chwyldroadol a dywedwyd amdany'n nhw: "quite simply, the best purveyors of Acappella song on these islands". Achosion cymdeithasol ac amgylcheddol ydi byrdwn eu caneuon, o law Jim Boyes a Lester Simpson gan mwyaf, yn defnyddio cydgordiau yn nhraddodiad canu gwerin a chowboi ond â thro yn eu cynffon sy'n cyd-fynd â'r geiriau crafog miniog.

Street-wise, sexy and intoxicating – is there an American composer since Gershwin who hasn't been touched by the urban thrill of jazz? Leonard Bernstein's West Side Story breathes with the heat, tension and fume-laden air of the Bronx, whilst his overture to the opera Candide is packed with irresistible tunes. And, to restore order there are two great American classics: Barber's intensely beautiful Adagio for strings and Copland's noble Fanfare for the Common Man.

Copland: Fanfare for the Common Man
Bernstein: Candide Overture
Barber: Adagio for Strings
Sousa: Liberty Bell
Gershwin: Rhapsody in Blue
Bernstein: West Side Story Symphonic Dances
John Williams: Schindler's List
Gershwin: Porgy & Bess Suite

Yn strydgall, yn rhywiol, yn benfeddwol – oes yna'r un cyfansoddwr Americanaidd ers Gershwin sydd heb ei gyffwrdd gan wefr drefol jazz? Mae West Side Story Leonard Bernstein yn nawsio gwres, tyndra a mygdarth The Bronx, a'i agorawd i'r opera Candide yn heigio o alawon na does dim maddau iddynt. Ac i ddfrifoli pethau mae yma ddau o glasuron mawr America: yr Adagio i'r tannau angerddol o hardd gan Barber a Fanfare for the Common Man urddasol Copland.

Copland: Fanfare for the Common Man
Bernstein: Agorawd Candide
Barber: Adagio
Sousa: Liberty Bell
Gershwin: Rhapsody in Blue
Bernstein: West Side Story Dawnsiau Symffonig
John Williams: Schindler's List
Gershwin: Cyfres Porgy & Bess

Mae Nigel Ogden yn chwedl ym myd cerddoriaeth organ ysgafn ac ers deng mlynedd ar hugain mae'n cyflwyno The Organist Entertains BBC Radio 2. Yn ei lasoed fe'i hysbrydolwyd gan droeon gyda'i deulu i glywed cyngerddau Reginald Dixon yn y Blackpool Tower Ballroom ac mae wedi cadw'n fyw swyn, cyffro a harddwch y traddodiad hwnnw. Guitar Prom Prom y Gitâr

Richard Durrant

There is no other guitar concert on tour anywhere in the world quite like Richard Durrant's "Guitar Whisperer". The show includes a Paraguan Dance Suite, a stunning arrangement of Debussy's Arabesque, Richard's unique solo take on Mike Oldfield's Tubular Bells played to footage of the Apollo Moon Landings, JS Bach on the humble Ukulele and Falla's La Vida Breve with Miranda Vincent's Goya inspired film. A prismatic musical voyage with audio visual accompaniment. Spellbinding.

"Extraordinary virtuosity... A simply unmissable treat." Classic FM Magazine 2009

O blith cyngerddau gitâr sydd ar daith yn unrhyw le yn y byd mae "Guitar Whisperer" Richard Durrant ar ei ben ei hun. Mae'r sioe yn cynnwys Cyfres Ddawns o Baraguay, trefniant trawiadol o Arabesque Debussy, gwedd solo ddihafal Richard ar Tubular Bells Mike Oldfield a chwaraeir i gyfeilio i ffilm Glanio'r Apollo ar y Lleuad, JS Bach ar yr lwcailio diymhongar a La Vida Breve Falla gyda ffilm Miranda Vincent a ysbrydolwyd gan Goya. Taith gerddorol o liwiau'r enfys i gyfeiliant clywedol. Cyfareddol.
