FOLK PROM GWERIN – JOSIENNE CLARK & BEN WALKER

featuring / yn cynnwys The Mavron Quartet

While much of their music is characterised by lush chamber ensemble orchestration, what truly sets their music apart is the combination of Josienne Clarke's divinely nuanced voice and Ben Walker's intricately expressive guitar technique. They cite Sandy Denny, June Tabor, Nic Jones and Pierre Bensusan as influences but their captivating sound is all their own. For this special concert Josienne and Ben will be joined by St David's Hall's Ensemble in Residence The Mavron Quartet adding an extra dimension to their exquisite music.

Offeryniaeth ensemble siambr foethus sy'n nodweddu llawer o'u cerddoriaeth, ond yr hyn sy'n eu rhoi ar eu pennau'u hunain ydi'r cyfuniad o lais Josienne – ac iddo arlliwiau nefolaidd sy'n cyffroi'r teimladau – a thechneg gitâr Ben sy'n ddeheuig ac yn gywrain o gyfleugar. Maen nhw'n sôn am ddylanwadau Sandy Denny, June Tabor, Nic Jones a Pierre Bensusan, ond iddyn nhw'u hunain yn ddigamsyniol y perthyn eu naws gyfareddol. FRIGG

With four fiddles, an upright bass, guitars and mandolins the Finnish folk band Frigg have absorbed melodies and rhythms from various styles such as bluegrass, Celtic, Balkan and even heavy metal, to develop their own Nordgrass, a joyful mix of Nordic folk and American bluegrass. Remaining true to their roots, they draw strength from the folk music heritage of their homeland featuring musicianship of highest quality with more than a hint of mischief and wonder. It's fiddling, but not as we know it...

Yn bedair ffidil, bas unionsyth, gitarau a mandolinau, llyncodd Frigg, y band gwerin o'r Ffindir, alawon a rhythmau o amryfal arddulliau megis canu'r tir glas, Celtaidd, Balcanaidd a hyd yn oed metal trwm, i feithrin eu Nordgrass eu hunain, cymysgfa orfoleddus o ganu gwerin Nordig a chanu'r tir glas America. Yn driw i'w gwreiddiau, maen nhw'n dwyn eu nerth o dreftadaeth canu gwerin eu mamwlad ynghyd â dawn gerddorol o'r radd flaenaf a mwy na blewyn o ddireidi a rhyfeddod. Ffidlera sydd yma, ond ar newydd wedd...

'This is Blazing Fiddles on steroids! If you like that style of multiple fiddles with interesting and different backings you should look out for Frigg.'

MARTYN JOSEPH

Martyn Joseph is a jaw-dropping guitar player whose unique percussive style combines with a powerful show-stopping voice. His combination of music and social commentary that speaks for many is delivered by a master craftsman often referred to as 'The Welsh Springsteen'. With a reputation for formidable live performances Martyn stands in his own right with music that's hard to categorise. He's been called folk, rock, soul, folk funk and Americana but sometimes music doesn't need a defining genre.

Mae Martyn Joseph yn ganwr gitâr syfrdanol a chanddo arddull darawol ddihafal ar y cyd â llais nerthol sy'n ddigon i stopio'r sioe. Traddodir ei gyfuniad o gerddoriaeth a sylw ar gymdeithas sy'n siarad dros lawer gan feistr ar ei grefft a elwir yn aml yn 'Springsteen Cymru'. Mae Martyn yn cael y gair o roi perfformiadau byw aruthrol a saif yn ei rinwedd ei hun yn sgìl cerddoriaeth sy'n anodd ei dosbarthu. Fe roddwyd arno'r enwau gwerin, roc, canu'r enaid, ffync gwerin ac Americana ond weithiau does ar gerddoriaeth ddim angen genre i'w diffinio.
