£5 TICKETS

FOR ALL GCSE, A-LEVEL & UNIVERSITY STUDENTS THROUGHOUT WALES!*

CARDIFF PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA close their 2017/18 season in style with an epic performance of Mahler's *Symphony No 3 at St David's Hall on Sunday 17 June at 3pm - and GCSE, A-Level and university students across Wales can be there for just £5!

Scored for huge orchestra, this magical masterpiece across six movements is one of the most engrossing and uplifting works ever written and is Mahler's hymn to Nature. Under the baton of Conductor Michael Bell MBE, CPO are joined by the sensational mezzo-soprano Kate Woolveridge, the Welsh National Opera Community Chorus and Choristers of St David's Metropolitan Cathedral Choir with Musical Director, Jeffrey Howard.

Students can book tickets on our website using the below promo code, or via the Box Office. Teachers are FREE when accompanying students, but group bookings must be made by calling the Box Office on the number below.

To book your seats please call the number below, visit the Box Office, or access the CPO Mahler 3 page via our website and enter the Promo Code: CPOSTUDENTS5

St David's Hall
Neuadd Dewi Sant

029 2087 8444
www.stdavidshallcardiff.co.uk

Plus an optional £1 postage fee. Offer does not apply to tickets already purchased and cannot be used with any other discount/concession. Box Office Manager reserves right to withdraw the offer at any time. Student/teacher ID may be required when collecting tickets.