Clwb Ifor Bach presents Ólafur Arnalds

Fifteen years ago, when he started writing music, Ólafur Arnalds was composing for imaginary films – “I was scoring the pictures in my head”. He didn’t imagine anyone else would want to hear the music for those inner visions.

Now he’s one of the world’s most popular composers, people very much do want to hear the music he hears to accompany his own mental movies. With re:member, his fourth ‘official’ studio album, they will hear the most remarkable and beautiful expression of that music yet, as it takes the listener through varied moods and feelings, through different musical landscapes. You can hear every facet of his work – the composition, the soundtracks, the pop – bursting through, flowering.
