Zog

By Julia Donaldson and
Axel Scheffler

Large in size, and keen in nature, Zog is so eager to win a golden star at Madam Dragon's school, where dragons learn all the things that dragons need to know. Zog tries so very hard, perhaps too hard, and he bumps, burns and roars his way through years one, two and three.

Luckily, the plucky Princess Pearl patches him up ready to face his biggest challenge yet... a duel with Gadabout the Great!

Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler's much-loved Zog comes to life in Mike Shepherd's (founder and Artistic Director of Kneehigh) magical adaptation with Johnny Flynn's (award-winning actor and singer-songwriter with The Sussex Wit) sumptuous folk score featuring live musicians. Katie Sykes' design lifts the book from the page and creates a real and fantastical world. From the team behind Tiddler and Other Terrific Tales and Tabby McTat, Zog promises to be roaring fun for all ages.

Roots Unearthed

There is certainly no shortage of virtuosity amongst the members of Flook but the unique impact of this band stems from the wholly intuitive, almost symbiotic, exchange between the various flutes, frets and skins.

Twenty-four years after their first gig together, Flook continue to inspire and enchant audiences of all ages. With their new album Ancora out in 2019, it's plain to see that, with their roots firmly anchored in the tradition, Flook are holding fast to their reputation as major musical innovators.

The Guilty Feminist Live

'I'm a feminist but...'

The Guilty Feminist podcast has become a comedy phenomenon with over 50 million downloads since it launched in late 2016. Comedian Deborah Frances-White and her guests discuss things which all twenty-first century feminists agree on – while confessing the insecurities, hypocrisies and fears which undermine those noble goals.

Deborah will be joined by some of your favourite comedians, guests and musicians from the podcast for a celebration of how far we've come, and a conversation about what remains to be done.
